August 22nd 2017: Eliminating Income Inequality

This week Chairman Emeritus of global powerhouse, Young and Rubicam, Peter Georgescu joins us to talk about an issue which affects every individual, business and government leader in the United States, the unprecedented gap in income inequality. In my opinion, there is no better subject expert than Georgescu when it comes to laying out the mathematical and historical facts on how we got to this point and why the solution must come from business itself. If you're a fan of Bernie Sanders you're going to want to listen up, because Georgescu's book is proof there is always more than one way to go
