Monday at 10 AM Pacific
October 16th 2017: How to Build a Culture of Caring

This episode is a dialogue with two amazing Nursing Leaders. Betsy Stites, BSN, RN, was on the first Episode we had. She is returning on this one as an expert of creating a culture of caring during 20 years of extreme obstacles in a Forming (melding) large organization. Dr. Katherine Todd, DNP, MBA, RN, PHN, is a young leader, just hitting her stride, with strong concepts (and the credentials to match) of what a healthcare environment needs to be for the health of not only the patients, but the people who serve and care there.
