October 31st 2017: Survival in an Unfavourable Market

David sits with John Festival to ask how his entrepreneurial spirit sustains the survival of a company in an Oil & Gas market experiencing a collision with a faltering economy in the single largest private sectors in Canada. While the market looks meek, Calgary is still one of the largest providers of world-scale oil and gas resources, a highly skilled and globally connected workforce and research and innovation leadership. This episode gives David an opportunity to sit with someone who has experienced the markets ups & downs, and finally get an answer to the question, "How is the Oil & Gas se
