November 2nd 2017: Healing the Energy Points of the Body and Soul

This week's lesson will break down a certain metaphysical concept that has been confusing to people over the years. Energy points are also known as "Chakra Points". Whatever you decide to call them, these points within the essence of all humans are very real. They can be better understood as different components of the Soul. Each of these 7 parts must be developed according to a specific pattern. Each of these points also correlate to specific organs and body parts. Many ailments and diseases are the direct result of under-developed "Soul Points". All children must be nurtured and raised appro
