Investing time and energy in your own development will most certainly help accelerate your personal career growth. And as you grow and move up within your organization, there will be new people who take your place. It is much easier to move on and up within your career if you have someone on your team who can make a smooth transition into your previous role. That is why it is so important to select people to your team who have the potential to be in your current role someday. There is nothing wrong with selecting someone who does not necessarily have the desire or potential to one day be promo
