New Episodes Weekly
May 3rd 2018: Crossing Global Boundaries

When an expatriate is moving to China, it is incredibly challenging, not just for the expatriate, but also for the whole family to adapt, transit, and assimilate to the unfamiliar environment and culture. Cross-cultural Development with families is an essential ingredient to assist families in their adjustment and adaptation to a new culture and environment. Lesley Lewis, a psychologist, executive coach, author, culturalist, and the founder of Culture3Counsel Limited (www.culture3counsel.com), has worked with many families in transitioning into a new home. She also works with cross-cultural
