June 25th 2018: Disturbing Workplace Behavior

Ever worked with someone who made you feel uncomfortable? Maybe you were never sure whether you'd find them in a friendly frame of mind or in full attack mode. Maybe you'd seen them yell, curse, and call people names on more than one occasion—and nobody, including their supervisor, had done anything to stop them. Perhaps their disturbing behavior was quieter: they confided their many grudges and thoughts of revenge or showed a strange fascination with one of your coworkers. Join host Ken Dolan-Del Vecchio for a conversation with Dr. Park Dietz, founder of Threat Assessment Group (TAG) www.tagi
