July 2nd 2018: Why the Gerson Therapy is important

It may seem odd to many that a therapy that has been around for almost 100 years, and is still not very well-known or embraced by the conventional (allopathic) medical world, insurance companies, government agencies, hospitals or health professionals in most of the world should hold such a fascination for your host, or even be relevant to today's culture. Haven't medicine and science advanced so far as to make it irrelevant? Why is it important in the world of "wonder drugs," high tech medicine, and genetic engineering? Why bother with this obviously outdated method? The answer is, unfortu
