August 16th 2018: Lessons Learned: Integrating Cyber Security with IMS/ICS Systems

Cyber Security is a relatively new realm in the Business Continuity / Disaster Planning / Information Security world and often, people are clear on what it is or how should help during crises. For this show, we speak with expert Douglas Grant who will share his experiences integrating cyber security best practices into a broader incident management framework, allowing organizations to respond effectively to a range of network based attacks and disruptions. Douglas will provide an overview of his experience in addressing these issues, particularly focusing on how to effectively align cybe
