

Psych Up Live
Thursday at 11 AM Pacific
July 12th 2018: Encore: Blended: Personal Stories of the Stepfamily Experience

In this episode, Samantha Waltz, the author of the powerful book, Blended: Writers on the Stepfamily Experience and three of her wonderful contributing writers, Betsy Graziani Fasbinder, Gigi Rosenberg, and Emma Kate Tsai will share their personal experiences of being parents or children in stepfamilies. As three of the thirty professional writers who share their blended experience in this book, their voices convey more than the facts or dynamics of stepfamilies. They convey in a personal way the challenges of connection, the promise and pain of children who have lost parents from divorce or d

Read more

DOWNLOAD PDF

GET CODE

Featured Guests

Samantha Waltz
Samantha Waltz, the editor of Blended: Writers on the Stepfamily Experience, has been writing since childhood. She sold her first story at age eleven to a local newspaper, followed by first prizes in fiction and non-fiction and publication in American Girl when she was in her teens. She later worked as a guest editor and then an editorial assistant for MADMOISELLE. Her books include Parenting: Four Patterns In Child-Rearing, (New York: Hart Publishing) and Parenting Gifted Children (Salem: Oregon State Department).

Read more

Betsy Graziani Fasbinder
Betsy Graziani Fasbinder became a second when she married a widower with a young son. Their story in Blended is one of a collection that will be published in May 2017 and tells the story of how love and loss are not opposites, but intimate cohabitants in a family. She is the author of the critically acclaimed novel, Fire & Water (She Writes Press 2013). Betsy has been a licensed psychotherapist in California since 1992. She lives with her husband in their recently empty nest in Marin County, California with Edgar, her salt-n-pepper doodle as her faithful writing companion.

Read more

Gigi Rosenberg
Gigi Rosenberg's articles and essays have been published by Psychology Today, Parenting, Writer's Digest, Poets & Writers and Seal Press. She's been a guest commentator on Oregon Public Broadcasting and has performed her dramatic monologues at Seattle's On The Boards. She's author of The Artist's Guide to Grant Writing (published by Watson-Guptill) and editor of Professional Artist, an award-winning business magazine for visual artists. Her current project is My Secret Father: a memoir. For the latest, visit gigirosenberg.com

Read more

Emma Kate Tsai
Emma Kate Tsai is a writer, editor, and preparatory school English teacher in Houston, Texas. Her work has been published in literary journals such as Brevity, Brain Child magazine, and Intellectual Refuge, and in the print anthologies, Blended: Writers on the Stepfamily Experience and Drinking Diaries: Women Serve Their Stories Straight Up. She is currently working on a memoir about identity as an identical twin and the fractured relationship identical twinship can cause.

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook

Share On Twitter

Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Read what our hosts are writing about.

