August 14th 2018: The Path of Action

The path of the ascension, as laid out so clearly by the ascended masters, is a path of action, of doing. This doing is often referred to as works or fruits. The scriptures don't say 'by our thoughts' or 'by our words' shall we be known, but by our works. And no distinction is made as to the magnitude of the works by which we are judged. All of our works, big and small, are measured by our conscious intention, by our awareness, by our motives. A small act of kindness, with no thought to personal gain, can be just as powerful as a great act of self-sacrifice. This is why our path of action
