Wednesday at 9 AM Pacific
September 12th 2018: The Role of Music in Healing

We've all heard that music is the universal language but does it help in our recovery from illness? We will talk about the role of music in helping us heal from emotional or physical trauma with our special guest, Julianne Johnson. She will share her personal journey through the world of music starting at age 2 and how music became her life. Besides performing, Julianne teaches music and is the choir director for the "Worship in Pink" choir.
