September 9th 2018: Cultivating Exceptional School Leadership

Effective leadership is key to success on any scale. And exceptional SCHOOL leadership is as vital to the success of each individual school as it is to our entire educational system. In this resounding hour, Paula and her very special guest will address many essential questions including: What makes a great leader? How can exceptional leadership truly be cultivated at every level in a school? And how can each of us be an inspiring leader? Whether you're a teacher, principal, classroom aide, school secretary, parent, or whatever your career and life focus may be in education or in ANY field, th
