With the largest and most diverse Archdiocese in the US, Dr. Baxter is charged with leading a school system of over 80,000 students. How did he arrive at becoming the Superintendent of Catholic Schools for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles? Vision. Kevin Baxter had a vision to improve schools, inspire leaders, and eventually, impact Catholic education. As one of five siblings, Kevin had parents who supported and family to cheer him along the way. An athlete in high school, Kevin thought he might play in college, but then made a detour along the way. After college, he did what any good dreamer
