October 19th 2018: Breaking the Chains That Bind You

Breaking the Chains That Bind You is an impelling story of one man's trek from a life of crime and addiction to a life of freedom and peace while presently being incarcerated in a state penitentiary. Instead of controlling others, Levi is now serving others. He risks his life daily to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ to fellow inmates. He has freedom from the anger and pain that festered within and exploded without to an unexplainable sense of love and joy. Once more, even though Levi is imprisoned, he experiences freedom from entrapment, waiting patiently for God to open the prison doors

Levi

Levi learned early on that he had to care for himself. Looking back on his childhood, he could not recall a time when his parents taught him right from wrong. As a child, he ran the household. At age 12, he lived in a shed fixed up for him not far from his parent's home.
