Exploring Beyond the Edge Archives Available October 29th 2018: Nature's Language

Our perceptions are, in large part, directed by the language we speak. While nature's language is received in the body and heart, human language is constructed in the mind. This week, Tiokasin Ghosthorse of the Cheyenne River Lakota Nation will discuss our energetic connection with nature and Mother Earth as he reveals the ways in which our perceptions are being directed through our language. He provides insight into the relevance of ancient traditions in today's world.
