October 29th 2018: Ep. 54: How SOAR Technologies Force Multiply Your IR Assets

Special Guest Michael Fowler, Vice President of Professional Services for DFLabs, appears on Episode #54 of Task Force 7 Radio to talk about how Security Orchestration, Automation, and Response Technologies can force multiply the Incident Response capabilities of any organization. Fowler explains how SOAR technologies work, if they should be expected to take the place of humans, and what the biggest benefits of SOAR technologies are to an existing infrastructure. Fowler gives the audience the straight scoop on what hurdles and challenges organizations should expect when implementing a SO
