November 15th 2018: WP Welcomes Writer Dan Tordjman and Handicapper Ed DeRosa

Dan Tordjman, one of the founding fathers of Equestrian, was a guest on the show prior to the event in Louisville during Breeders' Cup week. Was the event a hit or a miss? Dan will be our first guest. Join us to find out! Handicapper Ed DeRosa was on hand at Churchill Downs for all of the Breeders' Cup action. We will get his insights on the races and their impact on divisional championships. Ed and John will also examine the fields for Saturday's graded stakes action - the $200,000 Gr. 3 Red Smith from Aqueduct; the $100,000 Gr. 3 Bop Hope Stakes at Del Mar and Churchill's $100,000

Ed DeRosa

Ed DeRosa grew up going to the track with his grandfather, who pretty much taught him to read (words and past performances) by letting him flip through the Daily Racing Form when he was done with it. He got into journalism in college, working for the school paper and eventually the small-town daily near his school. He recalls "I loved the rush of telling a story" and hoped that one day he would be able to combine his profession and hobby.
