It's the holidays, and there is joy everywhere! At least, that's so with guest Sherri Schwartz, who celebrates both Christmas and Hanukah each year and decorates with an uncommon zeal. She throws herself into her relationships all over life – her family, her community, her customers, and of course her favorite dog Bernie (the subject of a recently released book). AND, she is hopelessly passionate about her work as a decorator and purveyor of window dressings and carpet. This woman is on fire for life and the joy of relationships and the holidays. Tune in to learn just what you can learn from h
