Thursday at 12PM Pacific
December 27th 2018: Building Boys into Good Young Men

Our future male leaders are built at home stemming from relationships with their fathers or key male influencers in their lives. This show will discuss the process to better communicate and teach boys responsibility early to build them into better men in their homes, communities, and businesses. Dan will share insight from his latest book "The Storm" which is about a teen struggling with life in a violent and frustrating world. He's trying to do what he can, but he's angry about the hard life he's dealt with. Then, out of the blue, his estranged and mysterious Granddaddy stops by to see him.
