Express Yourself!

Sunday at 3 PM Pacific

May 26th 2019: Communication, Movies, and College

It's no surprise that art created today revolves around exploring the intricacies of communication. What does the film The Shape of Water by Guillermo Del Toro have to do with communication? Host Kenneth Jeon brings us a 20/20 Vision discussion of societal exploration and relationship-building while host Katie Choo shares the different communication challenges that living in Texas for her first year of college brought versus the four years of high school. A humorous dorm event at Rice is called "Screw Your Roommate" whereby dates are set-up by roommates for one another and a positive experience
