It's not every week that Marty gets to discuss the ins and outs of clay shooting with a shooting coach who's been doing it for almost three decades. That's the case this week, Dan Schindler from the Paragon School of Sporting joins Marty to do just that. Dan was a guest on the show some months ago, but there was no time to get to the nuts and bolts of the game. That will change this week, as Marty and Dan, who collectively have around 50 years of coaching experience get serious and provide some great information that shooters of all skill levels can use. Marty will also have the latest
