Preparing for the Unexpected
Thursday at 10 AM Pacific
September 26th 2019: Encore: Crisis Management: How to Develop a Powerful Program

Navigating through a crisis successfully is something all organizations must be able to do, unfortunately that isn't always the case. This is because they haven't developed a strong Crisis Management program. We speak with internationally recognized expert Regina Phelps, to discuss her latest book 'Crisis Management: How to Develop a Powerful Program'. We'll talk about how to build a great teams and how to identify team members to ensure executive support. We'll also talk about roles and responsibilities and something that all team members need to be provided if they are to be successful.
