October 2nd 2019: Saying Hello to Aging

It does not matter how old you are, right? That is, until you feel old. And, that is not based on your exact chronological age. The average retirement age for a professional football player is in their mid-twenties to early thirties! Some capable twenty-somethings are considering themselves as “has-beens” because they did not make it in a career that worships youth. On the other hand, there have been many men and women in their 70s and 80s hitting their stride on their life path. So, whether you consider yourself to be young, middle-aged, or old, you’re never to young or too old to say “hello”
