September 6th 2019: Commonalities among the World's Religions

All of us almost constantly hear about the differences among the religions of the world, and are frequently counseled to fear people of different faiths. But our guest, Dr. Muzammil Siddiqi, is a Man of Peace and a Man of God who will explain to us that this is greatly exaggerated because the world's religions universally have a large number of things in common. He begins by explaining the doctrines of Islam, which are either widely misunderstood or not understood at all by most non-Muslims. Then he will show us that, although all religions have their fanatics and even terrorists, Islam is a r
