We talk to my long-time friend and real live hero for me - Gabi Laszinger. Gabi always was a person who wanted to help people- and she went down the predictable route for a while - coach, hypnotist therapist - until one day she went to Nepal and saw starving kids on the streets. She didn't do what most of us do - give them some money or food - or look the other way. She created a home for them. The lost kids, the untouchables. She didn't have money she didn't have resources - she just had her - it's an amazing story. And I would love you to listen to her - because now she really do
