October 21st 2019: How This Social Entrepreneur Is Making The Impossible Possible

What does it mean that one wants to make the impossible possible? That's the mantra of this week's guest social entrepreneur Kunal Sood. Sood grew up with a myriad of problems as a child that included learning disabilities like dyslexia and ADHD and being obese. However, along the way, he developed grit and determination. As a social entrepreneur, impact investor, and philanthropic leader, Sood is focused on launching and promoting organizations that make a positive difference. Join us on this week's The Wealth Intersection as we learn more about this unique entrepreneur's journey.
