Sustainable Success
Thursday at 12PM Pacific
November 7th 2019: Hiring Right the First Time

Hiring right is not an easy task for many organizations. Onboarding is the one of the largest expenses for most organizations. Companies tend to focus on skills and credentials rather than other factors that make fulfilling an important position more sustainable. Casey Hasten is an expert in the area of hiring people not just based on skills and credentials but also core values and principles. She will share insights how your organization, no matter what size it may be, how to get it right the first time.
