Featured Guests

Eric Coffin
Eric Coffin is the editor of the HRA Hard Rock Analyst family of publications. Responsible for the financial analysis side of HRA, Coffin has a degree in corporate and investment finance. He has extensive experience in merger and acquisitions and small company financing and promotion. For many years, he tracked the financial performance and funding of all exchangelisted Canadian mining companies and has helped with the formation of several successful exploration ventures. Coffin was one of the first analysts to point out the disastrous effects of gold hedging and gold loan capital financing in 1997. He also predicted the start of the current secular bull market in commodities based on the mo

John Kaiser
John Kaiser is an independent analyst based in the San Francisco area who has covered the junior resource sector since 1983. After a decade working as a research director in Vancouver he left the brokerage industry in 1994 to launch Kaiser Research Online and create the "rational speculation model" as a tool to evaluate the speculative value of exploration projects.

Chen Lin
Chen Lin had been a doctoral candidate in aeronautical engineering at Princeton. However, Chen found his investment strategies were so profitable that he put his Ph.D. on the back burner to devote full time to private investing and writing a newsletter titled What is Chen Buying, What is Chen Selling. Chen's track record has been phenomenal. In one account we tracked in which he used no leverage, he was able to grow 5,411 starting in 2002 to over 2.2 million by the end of 2012.
