Happy New Year to all! On this week's show I welcome Brooklyn native, Ken Horn, onto the show to discuss his early upbringing and ventures in New York real estate. Like many of our previous guests, Ken didn't grow up around the real estate business, but rather found it later in life through other avenues. Listen in to hear how Ken managed to go to law school for just $600 dollars, brought the business of gelato ice cream to New York, as well as how at the age of 28, he got a lucky break with a prominent New York developer. Also tune in to learn about one of his earliest, most profitable deals
