March 10th 2020: A Life of Service

Have you ever needed to locate a government or a social service agency? Of course you have. Like most people you started with a google search which narrowed your list to about 500. Then you did a more detailed google search which may have gotten the list down to 100. After you click through enough links to make you blind, you start to call. You listen to voice mail messages with 14 options and wait on hold forever. You finally speak to a human who tells you, "I'm sorry that is not our department" and hangs up. Fortunately, the State of Arizona, which is home to 600,000 plus veterans, took
