February 25th 2020: Craig Radford and the Mission of Connect Direct

Joyce welcomes Craig Radford, director of Connect Direct, which is a business unit of Communication Services for the Deaf (CSD). CSD is a social impact organization dedicated to creating and providing technologies and services that benefit the deaf and hard of hearing community. Mr. Radford recently launched Connect Direct, and has worked with large organizations with like-minded accessibility goals such as the American Red Cross, Comcast and Google, to provide direct services in sign language for equitable communication access and creating employment opportunities within the deaf community

Featured Guest

Craig Radford

Craig Radford has been shaping the advancement of communication for the Deaf community throughout his 20+ year career. Initially spending over 12 years from the very onset of Video Relay Services, he then became a two-time entrepreneur expanding employment opportunities for his local community. Successfully selling each company, he transitioned over to the first truly equitable approach for customer support to deaf customers 4 years ago with Connect Direct.
