March 2nd 2020: Lessons in Servant
Leadership: From Startup to Entrepreneurial Success

Luke Peters wants to help your business. After making every mistake, he discovered tips for any small business that center on leadership and strategy, e.g., why is delegation is difficult? How do you give the right people more confidence to lead, build accountability but not micromanage, and, show key team members that you truly value their work? Luke and his wife started Newair alone and have grown to more than 50 people. Discover why they were voted as one of Orange County's top Workplaces and move your business from startup to entrepreneurial success.
