March 3rd 2020: Journey to the Cloud: Powerful Business Outcomes for the Experience Economy

The buzz: Businesses in our Experience Economy must orchestrate memorable events for customers. That memory becomes the product, the experience. Experience-based services drive economic growth in many industries. How your business manages and uses customer data is as important as products and services. How to do it right? A cloud-first approach helps accelerate cycle times, focus on strategic competencies, improve scalability and innovation, and allow customers to pay only for services they use. The experts speak. Ethan Jewett, Mindset Consulting: "Inconceivable!" (Princess Bride). Craig Stasi
