Goldie Jacoby

Goldie Jacoby is one of the youngest Holocaust survivors. Jacoby was born in Poland in 1937. She and her family hid from the Nazis in a barn for more than two years. Her late husband George was also a Holocaust survivor. His entire family died and he spent time in numerous concentration camps, including Auschwitz. In her book, Jacoby tells the gripping story of survival. Mrs. Jacoby spends much of her time speaking to students in the Coachella Valley about her experiences during the Holocaust.
