The Kinetic Enterprise(tm): Built to Evolve, Presented by Deloitte
Friday at 6 AM Pacific /9 AM Eastern
March 6th 2020: The Kinetic Enterprise: Changing the Game in Risk Management Through Technology

Is risk management keeping your organization’s leaders awake at night and worrying throughout the day? They can rest easier if they better understand how leading technology advances such as machine learning and robotic process automation can help improve their risk management, lower the cost of compliance, and free up their valuable human resources to enable the kinetic enterprise. Deloitte maintains its strength in risk and compliance management by having a dedicated risk and financial advisory practice. Our panel of leaders from that group will discuss how they have harnessed the power of t
