YASH and C5MI business experts will discuss the opportunities and challenges in successfully managing the transition to the new normal. Today you'll hear from John Gretter, Dennis Goad, Jr., Derek R Dyer at YASH Technologies and Marty Groover at C5MI. Topics they will cover: How to use required upgrades as an opportunity to modernize, such as considering moving to the cloud or to a serverless architecture. Why companies are struggling to justify the transition from ECC to S/4 or a new investment in S/4, and how to determine the business value. Ways to avoid unnecessary customization and
