June 9th 2020: How WID Is Addressing Needs of People with Disabilities During COVID-19

Joyce welcomes Marcie Roth, executive director and CEO of the World Institute on Disability (WID) to the show. WID's global mission is to continually advance the rights and opportunities of over one billion people with disabilities. Since 1983, WID remains committed to advancing promising disability inclusion policy and practices globally. Ms. Roth will further explain this mission and discuss how the organization is addressing the needs of people with disabilities during the COVID-19 pandemic.
