July 15th 2020: Innovation and Wealth: Forces for Good

Entrepreneurs and innovators are a powerful force that have contributed tremendous value to the business world and communities they serve. Often fueled from great passion and emboldened by a team inspired by their vision, they have built great organizations and amassed impressive wealth. What these individuals do with all their money when they successfully exit their ventures has helped change the world. This episode showcases examples of people from across the Indian diaspora who amassed wealth and are making remarkable contributions to the world we live in. It also invites soon-to-exit entre
