New Episodes Weekly
July 22nd 2020: Transforming Non-Profit and Church Leadership

Transformational leadership casts a vision and empowers the team to realize it through inspired performance. Hugh Ballou works with non-profit and church leaders because he knows they often must work even harder to realize their vision, as they don't have the power of the paycheck to push for performance. What keeps Hugh going is the profound difference those organizations make in our communities when they are led well and bring their vision into a reality. Don't we all want to know we've made a difference, and when Hugh hears this from his clients, it melts his heart.
