July 15th 2020: The Opportunities in Voice Tech with Pete E

This week on the Tech Cat Show we chat with Pete Erickson, Founder of Modev, a company that is focused on creating great events and experiences and also founder of VOICE, the premier event for voice technology. We'll chat with Pete about the events business, the impact Covid-19 has had and how he's driving engagement around voice technology by creating experiences around his VOICE brand. Pete will enlighten us about the future of events, AI and voice tech and how to move smartly through this pandemic on this week's Tech Cat Show.

Pete Erickson

Pete believes that human connection is vital in the era of digital transformation and over the past decade has turned that belief into a mission to find new ways to bring the tech industry together. Today, Pete's company Modev organizes some of the world's top events, such as VOICE Summit, VOICE Global, VOICE Talks and Spinnaker Summit. Modev is a global team of more than 40 event organizers, digital marketers, producers and community builders. Pete has been a contributor nationally at NPR, CBS, NBC and serves as the on-air "Tech Expert" for Fox 5 DC where he appears regularly to provide commentary on technology news that impacts consumers. Modev is based in Arlington, Virginia where P
