September 6th 2020: Money Management - How to Get Over Any Embarrassment and Handle Money Like a Pro

Let me just say this - if you don't handle money well, don't be embarrassed. When we have money issues and worries, it is difficult to feel like we are living a limitless life. Rarely do people talk about money, and most of us don't learn anything about how to deal with money in school. And let's face it, some people just have a better aptitude with numbers and money than others - but it doesn't mean you can't increase your money skill set! This show gets right into the nitty gritty of what your current money situation is, how you handle what you have, touches on your money mindset and giv
