August 20th 2020: WHEN CHARACTER MATTERS

These are hard times. No other way to say it. Searing Heat, social distancing, a pandemic of deaths and illness, unemployment, and first graders preparing to "go to school" online. If there was ever a time when we all needed the strength of strong character it is now. The difference between being a victim online and being a warrior is knowing who you are and what you believe. We are entering a truly historic time when our very youngest children will be on the "World wide Web" using technology that accesses millions of people, and they will be exposed to more sexual promiscuity and a
