Tuesday at 10 AM Pacific
September 1st 2020: Lessons in Leadership with Commander Guy Snodgrass

Commander Guy Snodgrass, student turned instructor at the Navy's Fighter Weapons School known as TOPGUN, speaks with "Next Steps Forward" host Chris Meek about the skills he learned in the TOPGUN program and the leadership qualities he hopes to instill in the next generation. Commander Snodgrass will offer a unique inside look into what it takes to train the top 1% of America's fighter pilots, and provide a glimpse into his current work as a strategic advisor in national security and foreign policy. He'll also discuss his new book, "TopGun's Top 10: Leadership Lessons From the Cockpit," to be

Commander Guy Snodgrass

Commander Guy Snodgrass, a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and U.S. Naval War College, is considered one of the greatest Navy fighter pilots of his time. As the real-life inspiration for the blockbuster TOPGUN films, Snodgrass remains on the Navy's Fighter Weapons School staff as an instructor and trains the top 1% of our nation's fighter pilots. He regularly appears on national news programs to comment on current military affairs. Snodgrass served as former Defense Secretary James Mattis' director of communications before becoming the CEO of Defense Analytics, a strategic advisory firm that deals mainly in national security and foreign policy. His s
