September 14th 2020: How to Become the Amazing, Successful Leader You Want to Be

Effective leaders make a conscious effort to continually improve their skills. Our guest has coached new and seasoned executives at one of the world's largest companies. An advocate for experience-based leadership development and learning through experience rather than education, she will share strategies you can use to prepare for your promotion into a leadership role and increase your effectiveness in your current role. Joined by an executive she coached, the conversation will focus on practical strategies you can implement immediately.
