Vitality Health Show

Thursday at 10 AM Pacific

August 27th 2020: TURNING AIRPLANES INTO HYPERBARIC OXYGEN CHAMBERS TO DEFEAT COVID-19

Stephanie Parrish and her guest, Janelle Cass, share an inside look at a novel new approach to defeating COVID-19. Janelle, a former Air Force officer, and her team of experts have been busy designing a promising new solution to the COVID-19 dilemma - converting retired military aircraft into hyperbaric oxygen chambers to treat numerous patients at one time with the virus-eradicating power of hyperbaric oxygen! Fascinating stuff you don't want to miss!

Featured Guest

Janelle Cass

Janelle Cass is a graduate of the Air Force academy and an officer with a degree in Bioenvironmental engineering. Janelle specialized in assessing and preventing exposures to nuclear, biological and chemical hazards. After being a stay at home mom for a few years, she continued her career in environmental engineering with the FAA. Janelle became enthralled with Hyperbaric Oxygen Therapy when she saw how much it helped her close friend with MS. She then left her secure federal job to open her own Mild Hyperbaric Oxygen center (Ohana Hyperbarics) two years ago. She lives in beautiful Edmonds, WA with her husband and two children.
