Currently I'm in my 21st year as a special education teacher for Albuquerque Public Schools. I spent 7 years working in public radio for my local community radio station, KUNM-FM. I was the training director and volunteer coordinator (1993 - 1999). KUNM produces a broad range of music and public affairs programming using a network of community volunteers and paid staff. I recently served 2 years on the KUNM Radio Advisory Board, (an elected position 2017-2019). I'm passionate about the power of community radio to evoke social change. It can be a force connecting people in the movement for social justice. Education: Master of Arts in Journalism, University of Arizona, 1993 Bachelor o
