We all have dreams we long for, as well as many things to overcome between where we are and where we wish to be. One woman has found a way to overcome the obstacles to build her life around the greatest passion she has: blessing and helping others with no strings attached. Tara Eusebi is the Founder and Chief Blessor of Bless, an app where givers can give and those in need can ask without judgment. How has Tara created a life of passion and purpose? What has she overcome? What sustains her now? How does the app itself work? Find out this and so much more in this week's episode. If you or someo

Featured Guest

Tara Eusebi

Tara Eusebi is the Founder and Chief Blessor of Bless. In 2018, Tara stepped away from a successful career in corporate America to pursue her passion for helping others. This pursuit led to the creation and development of Bless, a mobile application that is bringing communities together to help one another in every part of the world. The account of her journey will inspire and encourage you to discover your passion and go after your dreams. Discover more about Bless and get the app for free at www.bless-app.com.
