October 22nd 2020: Transformation...Through a Young Leader's Eyes with JT Baker

Challenging you to think differently and do things differently, have more impact, have more fun...to search for what is perceived as impossible to do in your field or industry, but if done, would be transformative. With my guests, we will discuss how they discovered exciting transformation opportunities. How it was meaningful in their organizations and to themselves. Understanding their successes, their stumbles, their regrets, and the wonderful things they learned in the journey.
