November 9th 2020: Lights...Camera...Action!

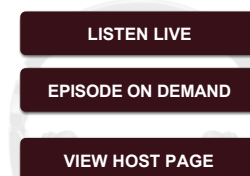

Actor and director, turned renowned speaker and coach, Michael Allosso, joins us to talk about presence. In today's world of video conferencing and broadcasting, we are all on the camera in front of audiences often. Do you know how you come across? Are you aware of your executive presence and how others may be "seeing" you in a world where most communication is visual? Your presence on camera is key to engaging your audience and making your meetings (or presentations) as effective and powerful as possible. Don't miss these helpful techniques and habits that will help you be your best when on a
